

Department of Psychology
The University of Hong Kong

香港大學心理學系

Departmental Seminar

12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. | May 5, 2016 (Thursday)

Rm 813, 8/F, The Jockey Club Tower | Centennial Campus | The University of Hong Kong

Compromised Sensory Processing in Schizophrenia: Implications for Clinical Symptoms, Cognition, and Treatment

Professor Cindy Yee-Bradbury

Department of Psychology, UCLA

About the Speaker

Research and Teaching Interests:

Schizophrenia, particularly Neurocognitive and Emotional Abnormalities; Stress; Attention; Clinical and Affective Neuroscience.

How Marriages Change: Observational and Longitudinal Studies

Professor Thomas Bradbury

Department of Psychology, UCLA

About the Speaker

Research and Teaching Interests:

Relationship Science; Development of Relationships and Families; Causes of Adverse Relationship Outcomes; Interactional and Emotional Processes in Relationships; Relationships and Stress; Enhancement of Relationship Functioning.

~All are Welcome~

Enquiry: terryau@hku.hk | Prof. Terry Au