Selected helpers will be able to gain research experience related to educational psychology and child development. Some of our lab projects are listed on <http://www.psychology.hku.hk/kshumlab/index.php/our-projects/>.

These positions will provide first-hand experience in data collection from children with ADHD at University of Hong Kong or Local Schools. Student helpers will be trained on administering psychological assessment under the supervision of the research team, and conduct their work at an hourly rate of $70 to $74.

Applicants should send an up-to-date C.V. together with a cover letter to maygnow@hku.hk. The deadline for application is 29 March 2024. Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for a full day training and passing-out session. Enquiries about the position should be sent to Ms. May Wong at maygnow@hku.hk.

Project details can be found on our lab website:
