CRITERIA FOR RECRUITMENT

- Second year undergraduate students or above (Psychology major)
- A good command of written and spoken Cantonese
- A self-disciplined and fast-learning person with a strong sense of responsibility
- Good interpersonal skills and organisational skills
- Have experience working with children
- Available to attend a full day training session in mid April to late May 2023

The applicants must be available for at least 2 half days per week from early May till early September 2023, and fulfill the requirements listed above.

These positions will provide first-hand experience in data collection from children with ADHD in local schools. Student helpers will be trained on administering psychological assessment under the supervision of the research team, and conduct their work at an hourly rate of $70 to $74. Sexual conviction record check will be required when entering local schools.

* We will make our best effort to match your time and location preferences. However, if there is a high demand for manpower on a particular day, the allocation of work will be based on the decision of the research team. Applicants who do not state their preference will be allocated based on the same principle.

Applicants should send an up-to-date C.V. together with a cover letter to psycadhd@hku.hk. The deadline for application is 12 April 2023. Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for a full day training and passing-out session. Enquiries about the position should be sent to Miss. Eunice Wang at psycadhd@hku.hk.
